COMMANDER'S PROJECT 2026-27

Department Commander Joseph "Joe" Michaud asks that each Post and Legionnaire support his goal!

Special Olympics Maine

CAMP TALL PINES

Department Commander Joseph Michaud asks for your help in fully supporting Special Olympics of Maine and Camp Tall Pines.

Special Olympics of Maine was deeded property on Lower Range Pond in 1993. They created Camp Tall Pines, 5 ½ acres of beauty to offer year-round vacationing experiences to persons with intellectual disabilities.

It is a traditional summer camp complete with cabins and waterfront activities. In fact, one of the cabins was provided by the Legion Family.

The Commander's Project is focused on raising funds to maintain The American Legion Cabin at Camp Tall Pines, support a new generation of campers, and highlight the importance of supporting the athletes of Special Olympics of Maine.

Some of the programs for Special Olympics of Maine:

- 19 Olympic style individual and team sports
- Unified Sports
- Special Olympics College Club
- Young Athletes Program
- Law Enforcement Torch Run
- Lobster Dip
- Golf Competitions
- Camp Tall Pines

Your financial support will fund year-round sports training, health screening, and leadership programs for people with intellectual disabilities.

Contributions to the Commander's Project will cover vital expenses like equipment, transportation, uniforms, and ensure no one is left on the sidelines.

Contributions to Special Olympics of Maine will also help fund The American Legion cabin at Camp Tall Pines and ensure our name proudly continues to support Maine children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

Donations can be made to The American Legion Dept. of Maine, 5 Verti Drive, Winslow, ME 04901-0727. Please place in the memo line of the check: Special Olympics of Maine or Commander's Project 2026-2027

If you would like to donate with a Debit or Credit Card, please call 207-873-3229 or visit: www.mainelegion.org and click on the DONATE button and select "Commander's Project" from the dropdown.

The Old American Legion Post

By Eliot Post 188 Historian (and Past Post Commander & Historian of York Post 56) Donald G. Hands

Part Four: The Four Pillars (Continued)

American Legion Riders chapters are well known for their charitable work, which has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for local children's hospitals, schools, veteran's homes, severely wounded service members and scholarships.

"So, if you were in the military before, or related to someone in the military, then The American Legion has a group you could join."

"Hey, that means I could join because my grandfather was in the Army."

"Yes, you would be in the Sons of the American Legion, unless of course you entered the military yourself. But," he added, "either one of those possibilities are several years down the road."

"Come to think of it," He paused for a moment. "I seem to remember that there were some kids your age in the parades. Yes, there were. They were involved as juniors. They were marching too. There were baton twirlers, baseball players, and others." It sounded as if he was talking to himself.

"Wow," I answered. "That is a full family. Something for everyone in The American Legion. The pictures I see on the walls, and ones my dad shows me are old. How old is The American Legion?"

"Well," He answered, "remember the 'Great War' or 'World War One' we talked about?"

"Yes."

"There were some soldiers in the AEF (American Expeditionary Forces) in Paris who wanted to start a veteran's organization. They planned it. They had their first convention in the United States 1919.

"That means The American Legion is almost 100 years old. I'll bet they must be celebrating."

"You know what, I just read something in the paper about that. It's The American Legion's 'Centennial.' They are planning a parade, a big convention, a memorial at the statehouse, Museum displays, and historical speeches. They even have a coin."

"The American Legion makes money."

"No, it's a commemorative, which means it is made to celebrate the occasion of the 100th Anniversary."

"Oh, I'll bet my dad would want to know more about this."

"He could always contact The American Legion Department of Maine. They are in Winslow now. They have a website too; I saw it in the newspaper, but I don't remember what it's called. I'll bet your dad could find it easy enough with any search engine."

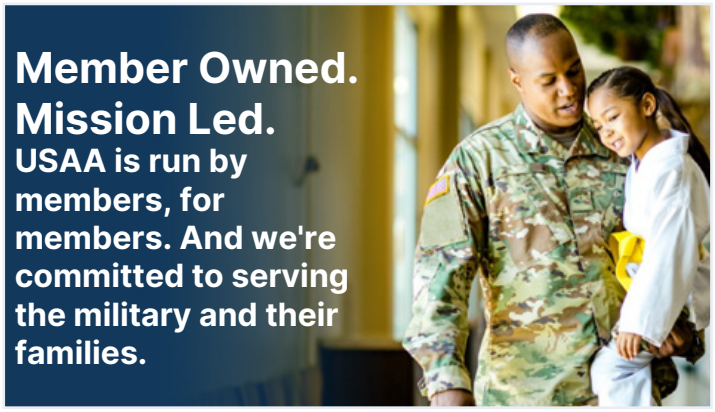

"By the way; where is the post now?"

"This town doesn't have one anymore." He answered.

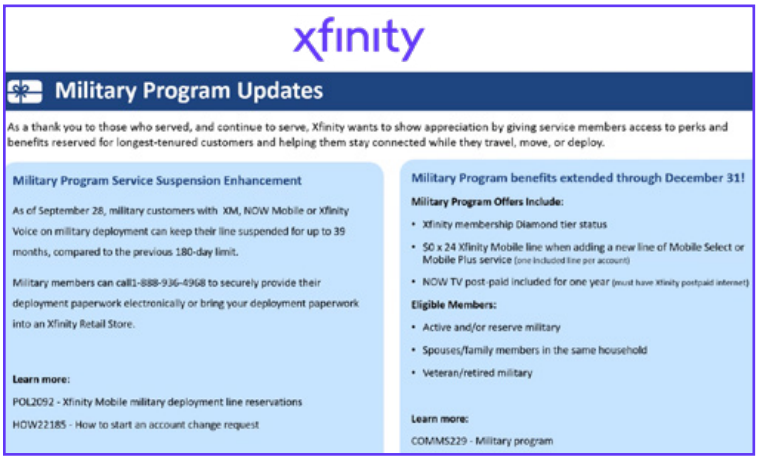

"Then, who will do all the work for the veterans and where is my opportunity to be a part of The American Legion family?"
