VA Increases In-Home, Community-Based Services Expenditure Cap for Veterans With Complex Conditions

VA's skilled home health care program will now cover costs of those services for veterans with spinal cord injuries, ALS and other complex medical conditions at 100% of the cost of similar care in a VA Community Living Center.

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs today announced an increase in the expenditure cap for in-home and community-based services for veterans with certain complex medical conditions.

VA's skilled home health care program will now cover the costs of in-home and community-based services for Veterans with spinal cord injuries, Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, and other complex medical conditions at 100% of the cost of similar care in a VA Community Living Center. This is an increase from the previous rate of 65%.

The rate increase will significantly reduce out-of-pocket costs for eligible veterans and their families for services like home health aide, home respite, community adult day health care, Veteran Directed Care, and skilled home health. This will make it easier for Veterans to continue residing in their homes.

VA estimates 200 veterans will take advantage of the higher expenditure cap in fiscal year 2026. The skilled home health care program has enrolled approximately 1,800 veterans since it was established in 2019.

"This important change will enable veterans with complex medical conditions to continue receiving high quality care while remaining in their homes, surrounded by friends and family," VA Secretary Doug Collins said. "By matching the expenditure cap for home and community-based services with the cost of care in our Community Living Centers, we are enabling veterans to maintain their independence and home connections."

The rate increase is the result of Section 120 of the Elizabeth Dole 21st Century Veterans Healthcare and Benefits Improvement Act of 2025. VA encourages veterans and their families to speak with their VA social worker to learn more about these changes.

Commander's Comments

Hello, my fellow Legionnaires. Wow, we are already into February! It's so hard to believe that our State Convention is just a short 4-ish months away. I must say I knew this year would go by fast, but I had no clue it would go by this fast.

I want to start off by saying Happy New Year to all. I wish you all nothing but the best health and joy for 2026. After all, you deserve it. What we all do is often a thankless job, but that does NOT mean people don't see and notice. So, keep up the good work.

For those who attended Mid-Winter Conference at Jeff's, thank you for giving up your time to attend and helping to make the conference so successful. A huge shout out to Department Adjutant Jason Hall and Vice Commander Ryan Coffin for all their work to put this together, and all those behind the scenes. There was a ton of great information given out. Many committees spoke about what they were all about, what they needed from everyone, and what they have been up to. Our amazing National Executive Committeeman Lloyd Woods once again did the "Do's and Don'ts," and it was well received. I mean seriously, how many people knew that the right side of our caps were not supposed to have any extras or pins on it? We look around at our posts and see it all the time. These are such great things to go over to serve as reminders and training. Speaking of training, I'm anxious to see how many attendees will be at Maine Legion College in March! You should all be so excited to attend that you just can't stop talking about it. I can tell you it's definitely worth your time. And of course, Shay appreciated

Commander's Project 2025-2026 Ember's Paws of Hope

Ember's Paws of Hope: A nonprofit organization dedicated to providing emotional and mental support to veterans and first responders through the use of future certified therapy dog(s). Members of our team have a diverse background which include being trained in critical incident stress management and peer support, and we visit fire stations, police stations, hospitals, and veterans facilities to offer comfort and companionship to those who serve our communities.

The Angel: Ember was 9 weeks old when she moved in with Tim Nickels, the goal was to have Ember become a therapy dog. It was discovered that Ember was too attached to Tim but no one knew that would save him later on. Anytime

Tim was having a hard day or a bad shift Ember would sit with Tim. Tim was diagnosed with PTSD in 2020, Ember wouldn't leave his side. Ember knew something was up. Tim became suicidal and made attempts to end his life. Ember stopped him at least three times. When the days were dark, Ember wouldn't let him leave without her.

The Project: National American Legion asks Departments to partner with local organizations to support BE THE ONE. Commander McKenzie has chosen to partner with Ember's Paws of Hope (EPOH), an organization committed to provide, comfort, support, and emotional healing to veterans and first responders through the unconditional love and companionship of therapy dog. EPOH is dedicated to enhancing the wellbeing of those who serve our communities and country, offering a source of solace in times of stress, trauma and hardship.

The PLAN: We are asking all American Legion Posts and/or members to financially contribute to Ember's Paws of Hope. This new 501-c-3 needs funding to provide more trained therapy dogs and make more appearances to provide physical, emotional and social well-being to others in need.

A 'First' Look

Hello everyone, I want to thank everyone who attended Mid-Winter Conference in Brewer. We had a great number of motivational speakers who gave us a lot of valuable information. I also want to thank National Vice Commander Ronald LaRose from Vermont for attending. It was nice seeing many familiar faces and several fresh faces as well.

Let us talk about membership. I am happy to report that Maine achieved our January goal of 80% by hitting 81.12%. Thank you to everyone who helped us reach this goal. Our next goal for Feb. 11 is 85%. We have several districts who have achieved this goal while others are struggling. If a neighboring district is having issues, please reach out and try to assist them reach that goal. Remember, membership not only includes getting new members, but it also includes current members. Make sure your current members feel wanted and needed, involve them in any function your post or district may hold. Do not forget Buddy Checks, members who may not have renewed may do so after you call them and let them know you care. Remember, together we are stronger, more impactful, and ready to tackle whatever challenges come our way. Beyond that, memberships reflect the trust and belief that we all have a place in our mission. Every time we renew our own membership, we say we believe in what we are doing and want to be part of the journey ahead. A Legionnaire's renewal means we can dream bigger, we can achieve more, and we can continue to make a difference.

Take time to look at the Legion Plus App. It has a step-by-step PowerPoint tutorial to sign up new members, and it is the simplest and quickest way to sign up new members. As always, if you are a card-carrying member of The American Legion, membership is also your responsibility. So, let us work together and get those memberships turned in and more importantly, processed.

I am looking forward to seeing you at our Department Convention on June 12 and 13 at Jeff's Catering in Brewer.

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact me: 354pepere@gmail.com or 207 484-8142.

Keep up the great work you are doing for The American Legion and your communities.

NEC Update

Here we are again—the start of campaigning for elective office within the department for the upcoming year of 2026-2027.

LLOYD WOODS

I would like to wish all of the individuals who are seeking to be elected to an office the best of luck in your seeking to be elected. One thing I would like to remind you of is that you should enter the process knowing that there are going to be times your presence will be necessary and that travel around the state is, or will be, required. Also, each position has its own duties to be performed by the individual who is in that leadership role. In other words, do not seek the office just for the hat. Be committed to the department and the veterans of this state.

As we have done in the past, a letter will be forth coming to all legionnaires, posts, and districts to please donate to support the campaign of the leading candidate for national commander for the year 2026-2027. We have done so in the past and supported the candidates just as many other departments have supported our past national commander candidates. Any amount is sufficient.

Donations for leading candidate for national commander should be sent to department earmarked "Jay Bowen Campaign." I would like to thank you ahead of time for your assistance in the matter.

I would like to thank all of you who attended the Mid-Winter Conference this month. I believe there was a lot of information delivered and hopefully it will be relayed to the post membership. This is how the membership knows what is going on and learns. I would like to congratulate the Department Commander Leroy and Vice Commander Ryan on hosting the conference and the various speakers/presenters who attended. We also had the National Vice Commander for our region, Ron LaRose from the state of Vermont, attend for the weekend. He said he had a great time and enjoyed the visit to Maine.

I am looking forward to the upcoming May meeting for the National Executive Committee in Indianapolis. I consider it a great privilege to be your representative of this very important body. This body makes decisions on how the Legion operates. Thank you for allowing me to be part of this body.

Finally, I want you to please remember that it is up to you to decide who from the individuals seeking to be elected to the various officer positions in the Department of Maine. It is who will do the job in your mind and not someone else's.

May God bless you and yours and this great organization we all belong to. If I can be of any assistance, please contact me via email lloydwoods12@gmail.com or cell at 207-557-4971.

all the snuggles and belly scratches from all. Thank you all for being so receptive to her. Thank you Tally and Topsham Post 202 for making this happen. To all those who helped make this a reality, I have so much love for you all that it isn't measurable. I am lost for words.

I also want to take a moment to thank all those individuals, posts, districts, squadrons, and units who have donated to my Commander's Project, Ember's Paws of Hope. This remains a project that I wholeheartedly believe in. There is such a deep connection to myself and this project and it blows my mind to continue to see all the support. Please keep the donations coming as we all know they are for an amazing cause! Please remember checks should be made payable to: The American Legion Department of Maine earmarked Commander's Project and mailed to: The American Legion Department of Maine, 5 Verti Drive, Winslow, Maine 04901-0727.

It's that time of year for elections to be held at posts and districts. Remember to elect people that are qualified to fill the position. Once elections are held, and installation is completed, fill out the Post or District Officer's Form and send it to Department. These forms are very important to keep the Department's directory updated. You have elected these officers, now it is so important to support them by attending meetings. Remember, make your post something your members want to belong to.

As I sit here writing this article, I look back on my own journey to your Department Commander. I have had some of the greatest mentors imaginable. I have had folks stick by my side through it all. I was truly blessed to be elected and to serve as Department Commander, but I could not do it without each of you. I could not do it without all our committees, our office staff who work tirelessly to support us, and most importantly my wife and daughter, who have sacrificed so much for me to dedicate the time to advocate and lead the veterans of this great state.

Thank you for all that you do for the Legion and your community, state, and nation. Stay warm. Stay well. May God bless you all and may spring arrive soon! Here's looking forward to sunny and 75!

members is important, we must not forget our current members. Continue doing Buddy Checks, either by phone or in person. Please don't make Buddy Checks about membership. Take the time to check in on each other and find out what's going on in their lives. Make your membership calls separate. Let them know what events are coming up and offer to pick them up so they may attend. Ask them what they are looking for at your post. Some members don't attend because there may be a bar, or the meetings are late and run too long. Remember what works at one post may not work at another post.

Training: Take the time to train the new officers in your post, don't just hand over the reins and wish them luck. Mentor and help them with the position you hold, some of these members may be brand new and are unfamiliar with the way your post should run. They get discouraged and frustrated and walk away from a position.

This year, as part of the Membership Plan, I have asked each district and each post to make up a two-or-three-man membership team to assist the membership chair. Each district will reach out to the posts in his/her district and assist with membership issues. If your district has not yet reached out to you, please contact the district commander. I will be in contact with all the district membership team to get updates on how each post in their district is doing. I am in hopes that many posts will reach 100% before Dec. 31.

This year, we will continue to have a District Membership Contest. The district with the highest membership percentage, will be awarded a check for $500 and the bragging rights for the year, and the second will receive a check for $250. Also, for the district with the highest renewal percentage, $500 and bragging rights will be awarded to the first place and $250 to the second place. The contest will go on until 30 days prior to the 2026 Nation Convention. Have fun and good luck.

I want to thank you again for your confidence in me as your Department 1st Vice Commander and I look forward to seeing many of you at the Mid-Winter Conference. I hope to announce that Maine is at 100%.

Americansim Report

Greeting to all. This winter has been brutal for many. Do your buddy checks.

Thank you to so many members for having the faith in me to be your representative to a very important part of The American Legion.

At Mid-Winter Conference I presented what makes these programs work so well—that is: you, the volunteer. So, what is a volunteer?

You join an organization because you believe in the programs they represent.

A volunteer is a person who:

1. Freely offers to take part in an enterprise or undertake a task.
2. Does something especially helping others, willingly and without being forced or paid to do it.
3. Someone who spends time doing something to benefit others.

And we all know that spending time and helping others makes us feel good.

Volunteers are always needed in our youth programs. Contact the chairperson, visit an event if nothing else, support a program either personal, at the post and district level.

Here is a list of some of the upcoming event dates. I hope to see many of you there supporting each other. Remember to wear your Legion cap or shirt so folks know you are there for support.

Consider Stepping Up: Your Legion Needs Your Leadership

The American Legion is the nation's premier veteran service organization, and its strength lies in the dedication of its members. We often talk about service to community, state, and nation—but that commitment begins right here, in your own Post.

JULIE

As election season approaches, we urge you to consider running for a leadership position within your post, district, or department.

Why Run for Office?

Running for a Legion office is more than just taking on a title; it is a direct way to ensure the future and effectiveness of our mission.

- Shape the Future: Leaders at every level make critical decisions about programs, finances, and priorities. By serving in an elected role, you have a direct voice in how your post impacts your local veteran community and influences statewide or national veteran affairs.

- Grow Your Post: Are you passionate about veteran outreach, membership growth, or community events? Holding an office like commander, vice commander, or adjutant gives you the platform and authority to implement innovative ideas and expand the post's reach.

- Develop New Skills: Leadership within the Legion is a fantastic opportunity for personal and professional growth. You will gain valuable experience in management, public speaking, budgeting, and team-building—skills that benefit you both inside and outside the organization.

- Fulfill the Commitment: Just as you answered the call to serve your country, the Legion needs you to answer the call to serve your fellow veterans. Fresh faces bring fresh perspectives and energy, ensuring the post remains relevant and dynamic for the next generation of veterans.

What Offices Can You Seek?

Whether you are new to the post or a seasoned member, there is a role for you:

- Post Commander: The top leader, responsible for presiding over meetings, overseeing all post activities, and representing the post in the community.

- Vice Commanders: Assist the commander and often oversee specific committees (e.g., membership, programs).

- Post Adjutant: The post's secretary and administrative officer, responsible for record-keeping and official correspondence.

- Finance Officer: Manages the post's funds, overseeing budgets and financial reports.

- Sergeant-at-Arms: Maintains order at meetings and is the custodian of the post colors.

Your post is unique, and its specific needs are always evolving. Talk to your current officers about their roles, what they have accomplished, and what challenges they face.

Not ready for a leadership role by you want to get involved?

You have answered the call to serve your nation, and you continue that service every time you walk into your American Legion post. But there is a place where your unique experience and passion can make an immediate, tangible difference right now: a post committee.

Joining a committee is not about taking on a lifetime commitment; it is about channeling your energy into a cause you care about and directly influencing your Post's mission.

Why Committees are the Heartbeat of the Legion

A post commander and the elected officers provide leadership, but committees do the work. They are the engines that drive our four pillars: Veteran Affairs, National Security, Americanism, and Youth Programs.

- Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation: Do you have a knack for navigating bureaucracy or a deep desire to help a fellow veteran? Develop a Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Committee. This team ensures veterans and their families get the benefits they have earned, changing lives one application at a time.

- Youth Programs: If you believe in shaping the next generation, a committee focused on programs like Boys State, Oratorical Contest, DIRIGO State, or Scouting is your calling. You will be mentoring young people, instilling the values of citizenship, and securing our future.

- Americanism & Community: Are you a planner or a people-person? The Events Committee (Memorial Day, Veterans Day, post fundraisers) turns ideas into inspiring community events that put the Legion front and center.

- Membership: The lifeblood of the Legion. If you are passionate Law Enforcement, Firefighter, EMT, Game Warden, Educator, and History Awards.

- June 1: DIRIGO State applications

Also, your post should be ramping up for Buddy Checks. During the week of The American Legion's Birthday (March 15) get a team of Legion Family together to check in on your veterans. Buddy Checks are a great way to communicate with members, check on their well-being, share stories, inform them of upcoming events, and explore resources that the veteran may need (stacking wood, lawncare, mental or physical care, etc.)

In late February, the Department of Maine sends a powerful group of Legionnaires to Washington, DC to advocate for Maine veterans. The Annual Washington Conference brings together Legionnaires nationwide for critical discussions with lawmakers, informative sessions with members of Congress and VA leadership, and insights on legislative priorities from the National Commander. The National Commander will also address attendees on legislative priorities during the National Commander's Rally. The Legion's key priorities are focused on several issues that impact veterans, service members, and their families, VA oversight, suicide prevention and mental healthcare access, military quality of life, and more.

Some parting information: Maine Legion College is March 20-22. To reserve your spot email: jason@mainelegion.org.

Some quotes from Maine Legion College graduates of 2025:

"You learn valuable info every day"

"My new network of members helps answer issues at my post"

"41 year member, thought I knew how posts were supposed to operate, learned a new way to be successful"

You are never too old or too young to learn valuable information to help your post succeed. Sign up today!

Stay warm, get in touch with the schools and send in some DIRIGO State delegates. You will make a difference in their lives.

For God and Country,

Department Adjutant, Jason T. Hall

Service Office Update

Hello from the Service Office. The claim process can be very confusing. There are several different ways to try to get a condition or injury service connected. You can try direct, secondary, aggravation, legal presumptive, or even malpractice. That alone is a major reason why you should reach out to an accredited VSO to assist you through the claim process.

SERVICE OFFICER
CARL CURTIS

In my Post Service Officer Training I cover the steps of the claim process for each listed above. I do this because a Veteran going through the claim process can go weeks and in some cases months without hearing from the VA. That can cause a lot of stress in Veterans. The PSO is the one at post level that needs to reassure the Veteran. He cannot see where the claim is but if there is understanding of the process, he can explain this to the Veteran. I will go through the basic process of the 5 ways to get a condition service connected. If you want to know more information about the process, please attend one of my PSO trainings.

The first way is through direct service condition. The required elements for direct service connection are, an in-service injury, continuance of care over the years, and a current diagnosis. An example of this is: I hurt my left knee on a unit run and I went to sick call to see a medic. I was on profile to recover from the injury. Since I left the service, I have been in a doctor's care for about three years. Now I attend physical therapy every other week for the knee.

The second way is through secondary service connection. This is when a service-connected condition causes damage or an injury to another body part. An example of this is: I am service connected for my left knee that I hurt in service. The injury causes me to limp around most days. The limp caused my other knee to hurt and damage to the joint. The damage for my nonservice connected knee can become service connected.

The third way is the aggravation of a preexisting condition. The required elements are a little different. First you need to identify an injury that happened to the Veteran prior to enlistment. This injury must be listed on the enlistment physical. It also needs to be listed on the exit physical. The VA will have to determine if the injury was permanently aggravated beyond nature progression due to the physical demand of service. An example of this is: I hurt my right knee playing football in high school. When I took my physical to enlist in the military, I had to see a specialist to clear my knee to enlist. While in the military my knee hurt a few times, and I went to sick call. On my exit physical from the military the doctor looked at my knee and determined it was much worse then when I entered. If the damage to my knee is beyond the nature progression of the injury it can become service connected.

The fourth way is legal presumptive. To meet this requirement, you must have served in an area within the time requirement where exposure to a chemical is conceded by the VA. To meet this requirement, you must prove: you were there, and you have a current diagnosis for a presumptive condition. An example of this is that you were deployed to Vietnam, and you have just received a diagnosis of prostate cancer from your doctor. Being that prostate cancer is a presumptive condition of agent orange exposure, the VA will service connect the cancer.

The fifth way is malpractice or 1151 claim. The is medical malpractice done by VA medical. It can be very difficult to prove. An example of this is you go in to have your right leg amputated but they remove the left leg instead.

PLEASE READ AND RESPOND TO YOUR MAIL FROM THE VA!

APPEALS OF CLAIMS.

The appeals process is no longer the strict structure it was. If your decision was after the 19th of February, you fall under the AMA. There are now five lanes you can choose from. The first two are at the regional level. They are called supplemental review and higher-level review. Then there are three ways to appeal directly to the Board of Veterans Appeals. They are direct, evidence only, and hearing. The time limit is now one year from each decision.

Contacting the DSO for Assistance by Telephone - Please just leave your name, phone number, and who you are working with.

Financial Assistance. Keep in mind that requests for financial needs should be directed to your town/city for general assistance (GA), and either a local Legion post for a possible fundraiser or the American Legion Department Headquarters. In addition, we can make referrals to other service organizations, but we do not have the funds to pay rent, mortgage, credit card bills or other ongoing bills. If you have children, mention TFA to the Department Adjutant when you call to see if you are eligible to apply.

PSO Training Seminar. There are three PSO training planned for this year. The dates are Apr. 29, Sept. 20, and Oct 28. Please be on the lookout for its listing on the Department Facebook page or the Leadership Ledger.

PSO Contact Information. Post Service Officers, as a minimum, please send us your full name, Post, telephone number (your phone number will not be released) and email address. The purpose is so that members of your post can contact you for local assistance and also so that I can contact you, by phone or email, if we hear from a member in your post that needs assistance.

INTENT TO FILE. Some veterans are not ready to file a claim or are looking for additional information. In that case, you can execute an Intent to File with our office. That is NOT a claim for benefits. You have 1 year to file your claim; one year period! Failure to file in one year starts the clock on your claim from the day you file. DO NOT FORGET TO FOLLOW UP AND FILE YOUR CLAIM!

NEW AND MATERIAL EVIDENCE. VA claims that are denied and have not been appealed within the appropriate time frame require "New and Material Evidence" to be reopened. It is sometimes futile and frustrating to the veteran to keep resubmitting the same claim as it will most likely be denied.

NEW WAYS TO APPLY FOR VA HEALTHCARE

Sign up for VA Healthcare. Sign-up for VA Healthcare can now be done three ways! The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) announced today it has eliminated paper signature requirements for veterans wishing to enroll in VA health care. Effective immediately, VA has amended its enrollment regulations to allow veterans to complete enrollment applications for enrollment in VA health care by telephone without the need for a paper signature.

By adding this telephone application option to VA's regulations with this amendment, VA will now offer three ways to enroll. This option provides Veterans a convenient third enrollment option.

1. Paper - VA Form 10-10 EZ.
2. Call 1-877-222-VETS (8387), Mon-Fri between 8 am and 8 pm, EST.
3. Online at www.vets.gov!

TOGUS VA WOMEN'S CLINIC. If you haven't already heard, there is a Women Veterans Clinic here at Togus. It specializes in women's health issues. Please keep in mind that there are medical conditions that may be claimable for the children of women veterans who served in certain areas and/or on certain ships that are presumptive for Agent Orange. If you are a woman veteran, it is a good idea to give us a call or look for more information on www.va.gov.

PLEASE USE THE DSO TO TRANSMIT YOUR CLAIMS/EVIDENCE TO THE VA THIS ENSURES A PAPER TRAIL AND EVIDENCE IT WAS SUBMITTED! You can either mail it or drop it off in the office!

DSO CONTACT INFORMATION. We are located at Togus VA Medical Center, Building 205, Room 318. You can contact us by telephone at 207-623-5726, Fax at 207-621-4821, or by email at carl.curtis2@va.gov, or julie.kern@va.gov. We are here to assist you Monday through Thursday, 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m., on Friday the hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. We are closed on Federal Holidays and Patriot's Day. Just a reminder, it is always a good idea to make an appointment rather than drop in as we may be seeing other veterans and would hate to miss you. That said, you are always welcome to stop in the DSO Office.

REQUESTING A DSO PRESENTATION AT YOUR AREA/DISTRICT OR SPECIAL EVENT. If you are interested in having us speak at your area, district meeting or event, just contact us to set up a time and date! Requests are handled on a first come first serve status, subject to the availability of travel funds. Please set aside at least 30 minutes of your agenda for the presentation.

recruiting and retaining members, join the Membership Committee. You will be responsible for bringing in new energy and ensuring our ranks remain strong.

Find Your Fit, Fulfill Your Purpose

You do not need a formal title or years of experience. You just need a desire to contribute.

• If you have an hour a month: Committees need people to make calls, staff a table at an event, or proofread a document. Your time, no matter how limited, is valuable.

• If you have a skill: Whether it is accounting, carpentry, social media, or just being a good listener, there is a committee that needs your specific talent.

• If you have an idea: Committees are where great ideas are tested and turned into action. Do not just sit on a brilliant plan—bring it to the committee and make it happen.

Do not wait for an assignment; volunteer your talent. Reach out to your post adjutant or commander today and ask, "Which committee can I join right now?"

The legacy of The American Legion is not built in meeting rooms—it is built by members like you, working together in committees to serve our veterans and our community. Step up, join a committee, and start making your mark.

Humanitarian Sought

The Humanitarian Award Committee is again seeking nominations for the annual Humanitarian Award. The Humanitarian Award, considered one of the most prestigious awards bestowed by The American Legion, is presented annually at our State Convention.

An American Legion Post must endorse applicants for the annual Humanitarian Award. Accomplishments of the individual must be over and above his or her usual vocation; in most cases his or her deeds would not be in their chosen field of endeavor; but consideration would be given to someone whose activities in their field of work was far in excess of what one would expect in that field.

Applicants may be male or female, veteran or non-veteran, legionnaire or non-legionnaire. A majority vote of the Humanitarian Award Committee will be final.

If an individual was previously submitted and not selected, please submit it again. We will consider anyone who has not received the award previously. Nominations should be received by May 1, 2026. Nomination forms can be obtained by contacting The American Legion, Department of Maine, 5 Verti Drive, Winslow, Maine 04901-0727; Tel: 207-873-3229; e-mail: legionme@mainelegion.org or on the web at www.mainelegion.org under Forms/Applications.

Legionnaire of the Year Sought

Is that exceptional Legionnaire, the one with unquestionable leadership ability, a member of your post? Do you have that member within your post that seems to stand above the rest in all phases of your post activities? Does he or she aspire to higher positions within The American Legion?

If your post has that member who would qualify for the honor and prestige for the Past Department Commanders Award, why not submit their name and resume? Being chosen for this award is indeed a great honor. When in doubt, ask those who were previously chosen. It is a title you will be known for during your entire Legion career.

Maybe your post has previously sent a candidate for this award who was not chosen. Why not submit the name again? There are no rules stating how many times you can apply. Your candidate could be this year's winner.

The deadline for applications is May 1, 2026. Applications can be obtained through Department Headquarters or online at www.mainelegion.org.

Send completed applications to The American Legion, State Headquarters, Attention: Past Department Commanders Award Chairman, 5 Verti Drive, Winslow, Maine 04901-0727.

Veterans Day Parade – South Portland Post 35

As usual, in November, the days are cooler and the crowds smaller, but South Portland American Legion is always able to put on a parade to honor our veterans. Each year the committee scans the many older veterans to find a grand marshal for our parade. This year it was First Sgt. Robert G Orff from Jefferson.

Robert was your typical Maine farm boy from Jefferson, where he grew up, attended, and graduated from Waldoboro High School. After high school, he worked at the Waldoboro Filling Station before moving to North Haven, Connecticut where he went to work for Pratt & Whitney as an engine polisher and buffer. However, he always made it home on the weekends back to Jefferson, where he enjoyed farming, fishing, and hunting with his friends.

On Dec. 6, 1956, Robert was drafted into the Army and was sent to Fort Gordon, Georgia, and then overseas to France, Germany, and eventually Vietnam. While in Bordeaux, France, his unit helped build the airport base. Later in Karlsruhe, Germany he oversaw parts and supplies for heavy equipment. It was in Germany where Robert met Carola, a native German, while giving a friend a ride. The two were married in Karlsruhe in June of 1964.

Four years later, in 1968, Robert deployed to Vietnam, where he worked in ground and mobile communication at Nha Tran. His final six months were spent under daily gunfire—a stark reminder of the sacrifices made by those who serve. After 20 years, six months, and 24 days of service, Robert retired on June 30, 1977, as a First Sergeant (E8), responsible for up to 400 Army students at a time.

Returning to Jefferson with Carola and their three daughters, Soraya, Evelin, and Sonja, Robert inherited the family farmhouse and built a new home. He became

Improving Veterans' Access to Mental Health Resources

When I returned home from the Marine Corps, I saw how important it can be to have a strong support system in your corner. Since then, one of my longest-running priorities has been to make mental health resources more accessible for Maine veterans.

CONGRESSMAN
JARED GOLDEN

That mission is at the center of the latest bill I've been working on here in DC. In the coming weeks, I will submit legislation to launch a formal review into the effectiveness of the federal government's veteran mental health programs.

The VA is full of skilled public servants who are devoted to helping veterans get the help they need, when they need it. But those individual employees can only do so much about the fundamental gaps in service created by an imperfect system. For example, we all know that living in a rural community can require traveling unreasonable distances to get basic care.

Likewise, those transitioning to civilian life aren't always clearly told about all the resources available to them: A recent report from the Government Accountability Office found that the inTransition program was unable to actually connect with more than 70 percent of the servicemembers it enrolled in 2022.

We should address these challenges and so many more. I believe forcing the government to formally document those problems is the first step to fixing the system, because I've already seen it work in Maine.

As a state lawmaker in Augusta, the very first thing I got involved with was attempting to bring in-patient mental health and substance abuse services to Maine — health care that was somehow completely unavailable without traveling far out-of-state. It was an issue that everyone on the ground knew about for ages, but even with our advocacy it hadn't yet caught the full attention of leaders at the VA.

So in my first year in Congress, I was able to convince the VA to conduct a real study into the lack of services in our state. It was that study which forced the agency to acknowledge the problem — and opened the door to eventually breaking ground on a new specialized treatment center at Togus.

The experience taught me that while it's frustrating that obvious problems can take so long to fix, often the fastest way to deliver progress is to force leaders to reckon with clear facts. My bill will ensure that policymakers get that information needed to inform improvements that get to the root causes of challenges with healthcare access at the VA, such as labor shortages, rural logistics, and inefficient outreach processes.

My office continues to help Maine veterans overcome challenges with federal agencies, whether that's expediting or recovering delayed or wrongfully denied benefits, accessing personal military records and documents, and much more.

I'm proud of the team I've hired to take on these issues, and I hope you'll reach out if you have your own problem I can help you with, whether it is service-related or not. You can send my office an email at golden.house.gov/contact/email-me, or call or visit me at any of our locations:

Ensuring Veterans are Treated With the Respect They Deserve

Across Maine, veterans who served our country continue to serve their communities as our neighbors, friends, educators, business owners, volunteers, and first responders.

Serving on the Senate Veterans' Affairs Committee is a privilege, and I am proud to work every day to make sure Maine veterans are treated with the respect they deserve.

Recently, I led bipartisan, bicameral legislation with Representative Chris Deluzio to improve awareness of veterans' benefits in the workplace. Far too often, veterans miss out on the benefits they have earned simply because they do not know what resources are available to them—or where to find them. Our bill would require employers to post information about federal and state veterans' benefits in any workplace that has more than 50 employees. Maine already understands the value of this approach—this has been law in our state since 2024—so this legislation would bring our common-sense policy nationwide. Ensuring veterans have clear, understandable access to information is a basic responsibility, and this bill is a straightforward way to better serve those who have served our country.

I've also joined my Republican Senate colleague Mike Crapo in introducing bipartisan legislation to streamline redundant inspection requirements for State Veterans Homes. Under current law, these homes must undergo nearly identical annual surveys from both the Department of Veterans' Affairs and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, diverting critical time and resources away from caring for our veterans. Our State Veterans Home Inspection Simplification Act would allow a facility that meets the VA's rigorous inspection standards to forgo the duplicate CMS survey—freeing up staff to focus on what matters most: providing high-quality care to those who served. This commonsense reform will improve efficiency, reduce unnecessary costs, and ensure State Veterans Homes—in Maine to across the country—can dedicate more attention to the brave men and women who depend on them.

SENATOR

And in case you didn't know, I released a new episode of my series Answering the Call: Maine's Veteran Voices, featuring Colonel Jen Fullmer of Biddeford, a former U.S. Air Force bomber pilot who flew 90 combat missions after the September 11th attacks. During our conversation, Jen shared not only her remarkable service defending our nation, but also how she has continued to serve Maine's veteran community in retirement—helping veterans transition to civilian life and even aiding an Afghan family at great personal risk. Stories like hers deserve to be preserved for future generations, which is why this interview will be contributed to the Library of Congress' Veterans History Project. Her service and sacrifice will never be forgotten. If you or anyone you know would be a fitting candidate for this series, please reach out to my office — we would love to hear from you.

From World War II veterans to those just signing up for military service, Maine people from all walks of life answer the call to defend our nation. Every person who serves deserves our full support, and I will continue fighting to make sure you receive it. If you ever need help or have questions, my offices across Maine and in Washington, D.C. are always here for you.

District 1 Oratorical contestant Paige Harvill came to Kezar Falls Post 123 on Saturday, Jan. 17 and had a wonderful constitution-related speech on her selection about the Fourth Amendment. She was especially shining with her knowledge of the subject matter.

Auxiliary Unit 123 always supports us and always provides an incredible feast for all. The storm did contribute to the low attendance from District 1, however one of our Auxiliary members drove up from Rhode Island to visit her mom and dad and attend this contest. West-Day Post 123 Helps Place Marker for Unmarked Grave

Members of Parsonsfield Post 123 were approached some time ago by Liam Opie, a fellow veteran and military history researcher, who has been locating graves and placing headstones for veterans throughout western Maine. Over the seven-year course of his journey, he had placed some 12 stones, with another half dozen in the works to be placed.

Through his research, Mr. Opie discovered that there was an unmarked grave of Civil War Corporal Isaac Pearl (1821-1902). Once the grave had been confirmed in the Sargent Cemetery on Bickford Road in Porter, Opie asked Post 123 if they would be willing and able to lend a hand in obtaining and placing a marker for this gravesite.

The post received the headstone and organized a plan for its installment.

"It is quite an honor for [our] post to help with this," said Parsonsfield Post 123 Adjutant Roger Berube.

And an honor it truly is, to be able to lay out a proper memorial stone for a Civil War veteran, otherwise virtually unrecognized. Hats off to West-Day Post 123.

A Welcome Warming Greet Post 188 on a Cold Veterans Day

On a very cold Veteran's Day, members of the Eliot-Kittery Memorial Post 188 were greeted with students from Marshwood High School's Interact Club. The club focuses on finding ways to give back to the community in meaningful ways.

Club members brought hot coffee and donuts to serve to grateful post members and community volunteers who attended the Veteran's Day service and then traversed the cemetery grounds collecting flags that were posted on veteran's graves at the beginning of the summer.

Post 188 always looks forward to and enjoys the fellowship as friends in the community chip in, many hands making for light work.

Eliot-Kittery Schools to Receive Assistance to Thwart Food Insecurity

It seems that in current times, food insecurity is an ever-present and growing threat to the health and well-being of many communities that The American Legion lives in and serves. Food pantries that have not been shuttered due to a lack of funds are overwhelmed. Many programs such as End 68 Hours of Hunger, which worked to provide school children with enough food to get them through the 68 hours of a weekend until they could get back to school for hot meals, has also shut down in many areas, including the school districts in Eliot and Kittery.

In response, Eliot Post 188 has allocated a sizable portion of their funds to fight food security among school-aged children. $50 gift cards to Market Basket have been purchased and are to be given to schools in Eliot and Kittery, to be distributed as deemed most efficient to students in need.

In attendance were Chris Bartlett, Pat Curtis, Bertha Day, Linda Fernald, Joan Graham, Glenna Jamison, Dianna Jenkins, Donna Kennie, Margwe McCloughlin, Linda Newbegin, Bea Osterberg, Diane Red, Dee Saffery, Cheryl Spiller, Betty Swett, and Sue Whitney. Members presented each widow with an arrangement of flowers and a coin commemorating the 100th Anniversary of The American Legion. Those unable to attend were Doris Deschaine, Jolene Webber, Martha Hendrikson, Gail Poiria, Lynn Roy, and Janice.

Commander Bryan McManus told the widows that tonight we focus on honoring you, the widows of our past members. Although this is only a few hours of one night in the year that we can enjoy dinner together, please know throughout the year when we think of the good times we had with our past comrades, and you are also in our hearts and minds. We hope you enjoy the flowers and the commemorative coin, and they remind you that we are here for you. These are just a small token of remembrance of this night. We are so glad you all could join us this year and look forward to seeing you all next year. Ramsdell.

The attack sank four U.S. Navy battleships and damaged four others. It also damaged three cruisers, three destroyers, and one minelayer. Aircraft losses were 188 destroyed and 159 damaged. Lisbon Post 158 Family/Member Appreciation Day: The old "kids" enjoyed the Post 158 Family/Member Appreciation Day as much as the youngsters! On a lovely Sunday afternoon on Aug. 3, 2025, Post 158 had a large turnout of members who enjoyed a variety of games, a dunking booth, and a bouncy obstacle course. Many thanks to the Topsham 99 Restaurant for providing delicious entrees and to many members who contributed a variety of tasty side dishes. Once the young children wore themselves out on the obstacle course, the older (ages 55-82) kids decided to try their luck. We're happy to report there were no injuries, although a few observers might have been crying from laughing so hard.

Locke Mills Post 68 Hosts District 5 Christmas Party

At 18:00 hours (6:00 pm), before District 5 held its regular monthly meeting, Jackson-Silver Post 68 hosted its annual Christmas Party Buffet Supper in celebration of Christmas and the impending New Year. A number of attendees brought salads and desserts, or their own favorite entree. The District meeting following was only an hour and five minutes in duration, yet much business was conducted. While Auxiliary Unit 68 put the post right, the Post Executive Committee conducted an abbreviated general meeting afterwards in the Executive Committee office following goodbyes and thanks for coming.

6th Annual FEZtival of Trees at Locke Mills Post 68

Post 68 co-sponsored, with the Kora Oxford County Shrine Club, the 6th Annual FEZtival of Trees on the weekend of De. 12-14, 2025. Twenty-six lavishly decorated trees, donated by local businesses, fraternal, and other community groups, filled the Post 68 Great Hall. Some trees were bedecked with valuable coupons, others with products, a few with items for children, and others for adults. Roll after roll of raffle tickets were purchased by the public, which came in substantial numbers, at one point lined up from the entrance to the hall, back to the entrance of the post, for a chance to go home with a tree. There was also a 50/50 raffle, which a past officer of Rumford Post 24 won, taking home a check for $595.

The Shrine Club reported that once again, being at Post 68, each year is better than the last in total proceeds. Likewise, the Unit 68 Canteen, preparing more cookies than a bakery, with hot dogs and soups, and signature whoopi pies, enjoyed final sales totaling twice those of the 5th annual event. The post extends a well-earned commendation to its post and unit members who participated through and at intervals throughout the weekend. Also, because of an anonymous donation, the children's craft table which was supervised by a Shrine Lady who is also a Unit 68 member, was free to the hundreds of children who colored Christmas images, assembled ornaments, and wrote letters to Santa, all of which will be answered by the Jolly Old Fellow. In a recreated North Pole greeting room of his North Pole house, Santa and Mrs. Claus were available throughout the event for photos, and on Saturday morning, the reading of season-themed stories.

The importance of Post 68's FEZtival of Trees to the Shrine is best expressed by noting that the presiding Potentate and two past Potentates were all working as volunteers at the event. A memorable moment occurred when a young women approached the post 1st vice commander stating, "The decorated trees are spectacular," to which he replied, "Yes, those old German pagan customs really put you in the spirit of the season."

Wreaths Across Hick's Cemetery in Greenwood

On Nov. 19, 2025 the Locke Mills Post 68 1st Vice Commander and Unit 68 Secretary placed four Christmas wreaths they had fabricated at the Hicks Cemetery graves of four veterans they had known at the post. At 83 years old, and with one much younger, one does what one can. The flags that were placed by the children, organized by Unit 68 President Paige Crockett, were still in the US Veteran Flag Holders provided by Jackson-Silver Post.

The wreaths are formed from wire coat hangers, with evergreen boughs attached with wire strips. Red, white, and blue Christmas bulbs, and other decorations finish the wreaths which are attached to cedar posts.

Discussions are underway to increase the number of wreaths placed not only in Hicks Cemetery, but also in all the road-accessible cemeteries in Greenwood, by once again enlisting area children to fabricate and place them. In early September, a flyer will be circulated in area middle and high schools announcing a wreath making/decorating class at Jackson-Silver Post 68 in mid-to-late October. The flyer will encourage students to discover if they have any close relatives who served in the US Armed Forces and are buried in the post's operational and adjunctive areas. The idea is for student volunteers to fabricate the wreaths and posts on which they are hung and then place them on their relatives' graves in the first week of November, before the cemeteries are inaccessible because of snow. The students will be encouraged to learn about their relative(s) and the time in which they served to spark their interest in the history of the US, and the reasons their relatives were willing to defend it. If a student does not have a relative in a local cemetery, they may choose a veteran who is locally interred. They would then research the life of that veteran.

If the program is successful, other American Legion posts will be encouraged to replicate the program.

Providence smiled broadly, as during a two hour plus power failure in Greenwood, the business of the republic continued, thanks to the generator, as citizens continued uninterrupted to cast their ballots.

On Saturday, Nov. 8, 2025 from 5:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., the Post 68 Legion Family held a community

Blessed are the Legion posts that have viable, dedicated Auxiliary units. Since their inception over one

As it has evolved, the Auxiliary and individual units have instituted their own programs, including scholarships, Christmas gift shops, celebrating birthdays and other celebrations for residents of Maine Veterans Homes, reaching out to Legion family shut-ins and those in need, and engaging in a multitude of community service activities.

Veterans Day 2025 at Jackson-Silver Post 68

Locke Mills Post 68 held its Veterans Day Ceremony. As it was one day after the 250th anniversary of the Marine Corps, Order #47, issued by the Commandant in 1921, designating the 10th of November as the day on which the Corps was founded, was read. Following the ceremonial format of the Four Chaplains, a Service of Remembrance was held for three post members who entered into the post everlasting between Aug. 29 -Step. 29, 2025. Before these ceremonies were conducted, Miss Emma Chapman, an Oxford County High School Senior, presented an oration on her life struggles and accomplishments to date, as she prepares to enter the US Navy upon graduation in June.

The Mahoosuc Community Band began the Veterans Day program at Locke Mills Post 68 with the National Anthem, after some ceremony, they

St. George Post 34 Participates in Wreaths Across America Day 2025

On Dec. 13, 2025 Kinney-Melquist American Legion Post 34 in Tenants Harbor, along with hundreds of St. George and South Thomaston volunteers, united to honor the fallen, remember those who served in uniform and let families know that a veteran will never be forgotten. Post members placed wreaths on every veteran's grave in St. George—over 800 wreaths were placed at five St. George and one South Thomaston Cemetery. According to Wreaths Across America, (WAA) we are the only community to cover every veteran's grave in the community. It was a day that reverently honored our veterans and solemnly celebrated lives of selfless devotion.

Post 34 Commander Thornton Batty Jr. served as Master of Ceremonies for three separate WAA ceremonies in the community. Hundreds of volunteers attended ceremonies at the Peoples United Methodist Church in South Thomaston, First Baptist Church of St George, and the Tenants Harbor Baptist Church. The Maine Army National Guard provided the color guard, whose participation added a level of military pageantry and precision drill to the ceremonies.

This was a real community celebration with Legionnaires and volunteers presenting the ceremonial service wreaths, hundreds of volunteers attending the ceremonies, and many more that braved the cold to place wreaths on all 800 veterans' graves.

The post is already fundraising and planning for next year with the goal of having a wreath on every veteran's grave in St. George and South Thomaston.

Harpwell Man Celebrates His 101st Birthday

Richard Parks reflects on his life, dedicating 30 years to wildlife biology in Maine as he turns 101, becoming oldest ever member of his family.

Harpwell's eldest resident, Richard Parks, celebrated his 101st birthday a day early last Friday, reflecting on his family and long career as a biologist with the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife. Parks, who was born and raised in Plymouth, Massachusetts, is, to his knowledge, is the only person in his family to reach his centennial. Parks graduated from two high schools, with the first one being Plymouth High School in 1942. To avoid the draft, Parks' parents sent him to Gould Academy in Bethel, Maine, a prep school where Parks completed his postgraduate studies.

Parks would volunteer for the service anyway in 1943, and spent nearly three years in the Navy as a quartermaster on a large landing ship. Parks left for overseas on March 10, 1945, for the last six months of the war during the Pacific Theater. The only action Parks saw was in Okinawa, where his ship landed several Army signal corps companies unloading trucks along with big rolls of wire for communication.

Toward the end of World War II, Parks was heading back to Guam and Pearl Harbor to pick up amphibious tractors (amtracs) and assault troops for the invasion of Japan. However, it never happened, as the Japanese surrendered and WWII ended on Sept 2, 1945.

After Parks left the Navy, he attended Massachusetts State College, which would become the University of Massachusetts while Parks was attending. During his university time, Parks became fascinated by the water surveys done in ponds for Springfield College.

After graduating from the university, Parks moved north to Maine in 1950 to work for the state as a wildlife biologist, primarily focusing on land acquisition and real estate.

Parks met his wife, Annie Haskell, through his job in the wildlife research division of Maine.

Parks moved to Ellsworth to manage the wildlife district covering Hancock and Washington counties. However, the district would later split, and Parks would primarily work in Hancock County.

When Parks began at the Inland Fisheries and Game Department, he met Raymond Moss, the Ellsworth warden supervisor, who had a reputation for being a hardworking warden dedicated to land conservation and ran the Warden School at Camp Keyes in Augusta. At the time Parks met Moss, he had eight to 10 wardens working for him.

hunters that I had, and also I liked the contact of the state employees that I worked with," Parks said.

A realty division was established within the Inland Fisheries and Game Department in 1970, with Parks placed in charge of all the real estate, operating as a section of the department. Parks dealt with the sale of land for public use.

"We tried four experimental stockings of game while I was working for the department; two were successful and two were not successful," Parks said.

The two successful species of game were turkeys and geese, with the unsuccessful species being caribou and sharp-tailed grouse. They attempted to release the sharp-tailed grouse in Washington County, but there were so few birds, approximately 20 to 30, that it was insufficient to establish a population.

Parks retired from the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife in 1980 and went on to engage in lobster fishing in Harpswell. Another one of Parks' hobbies was making wooden birds, along with bird decoys that he would sell at gift shops. He created approximately 1,000 wooden birds over eight years.

When asked about his feelings on living to the age of 100, Parks said he wouldn't wish it on his worst enemy. He resides at Hill House Assisted Living in Bath.

"I had a long, long life and a very pleasant life," Parks said. "I have a nice family, and I guess that is all a guy can really ask in life."

Topsham Post 202 is Going to the Dogs!

Everyone knows that dogs bring comfort to those in need, whether its service dogs, therapy dogs, emotional support dogs, or just a much-needed companion. When I think about my post, the Corey E. Garver American Legion Post 202, I think what dogs mean to all of us there. Our last three Commander's Projects have been centered around dogs.

In 2023, then Post Commander Sheryl Moore raised money for Mission Working Dogs. We were able to name our dog Corey, after the soldier who our post is named after. Corey was the head of his class and is in training to be a service dog to a veteran.

In 2024, Post Commander Jim Burak saw the need for a therapy dog in MSAD 75. He was able to raise the $10,000 needed to donate a black lab named Garver to the Resource Officer, Belle Mathieu. Garver, now a member of the Topsham Police Department, has brought comfort to many students in and out of school.

Jim Burak, still Topsham Post 202 commander, raised $3,000 needed to help pay for the training of a service dog for a fire fighter in the Topsham

Fire Department. This gentle Boxer will provide comfort and support, not just to its handler, but to all the first responders in Topsham—comfort that is desperately needed after witnessing the devastation that can be caused by fires, or accidents.

Last year, Department Commander Leroy McKenzie lost his beloved therapy dog. After a year, it was clear that he needed to get a new dog to help through the stressful times. Within weeks, enough money was raised, and Shay, a cuddly chocolate lab, came home to Leroy with puppy kisses and tail wags.

But our love of our canine companions doesn't stop there. If you visit Post 202 you might be greeted by some of our companions. They will greet you with a doggy smile and wagging tales. Their presence in our building brings smiles and comfort to all our members.

Anytime you are able to support a veteran with the comfort only a dog can bring—that unconditional love—you should do so. Meet some of our dogs that we have been able to benefit others, or just bring comfort to our local family.

Phippsburg Post 216 Happenings & Events

As fall arrived and the holiday season started, Phippsburg American Legion Memorial Post 216 continued to stay busy.

This was the second year that Post 216 participated in the town's annual Halloween "Trunk or Treat" at the Town Hall parking lot. This year, they decorated Post Commander Kellogg's truck and donned full costumes to hand out candy to the kids. Next year, we intend to have two vehicles decorated as the competition heats up between Post Adjutant Young and Post Commander Kellogg for the best dressed truck.

On Nov. 15, 2025, Post 216 members gathered at the Tax Bracket Fundraiser and the Veteran's Memorial Park to prepare the grounds and gardens for the long winter.

Members gathered on Sunday, Dec. 7, 2025 to decorate the inside and outside of Phippsburg Town Hall, the Veterans Memorial Park, and in addition, this year we decorated the Phippsburg Sportsmen's Association, which is the home of Phippsburg Legion Post 216 and Bath VFW Post 7738. We partnered with the Association, VFW, Phippsburg Town Office, Phippsburg Recreation Commission, and other organizations to host the town's Christmas Open House on Dec. 19, 2025 where Santa (Post 216 Comrade Chris Mixon) arrived by fire truck to visit and hand out a gift to each child (about 40 attended). This was a very challenging evening because the whole area had lost power, but post members supplied portable generators and water to keep the event on track. Thankfully, power was restored just as the event began.

On the evening of Dec. 13, 2025 the post held its annual Christmas Dinner for members and their families at the Small Point Baptist Church. Donations were made to Brunswick Post 20 to help provide Christmas boxes to active-duty members serving abroad, and to the Bath Senior Citizens' "Willy Knitters" who knit afghans for veterans at Togus.

In January, post members removed the Christmas decorations at all of the locations and placed them in storage until next year.

Now on to a quiet winter and preparations for a busy 2026.

Shared History Leads to Heartfelt Gift for Maine Veterans Home Resident

A simple conversation at the Tedd-Lait Post 75 (Old Town) Hunter's Breakfast turned into a touching story of connection and gratitude between two members of the American Legion Family. Maine Veterans Home resident Seaman William Isbister, who served aboard the USS Seattle, met Sons of the American Legion (SAL) member Chad Dufflemeyer, who was a pipefitter that worked on the USS Seattle during a retrofitting in Dry Dock.

During their discussion, Seaman Isbister recalled a cherished Zippo lighter bearing the ship's name that he had lost years ago. Moved by the story, Dufflemeyer shared that he once owned the same style of lighter. Inspired by this bond, Dufflemeyer brought the idea to the next Tedd-Lait Squadron meeting, where members unanimously agreed to replace the lighter as a gesture of respect

Wreaths Across America
Ceremony Held in Houlton

Wreaths Across America began in 1992 when Morrill Worcester, owner of Worcester Wreath Company in Harrington, Maine, found himself with a surplus of holiday wreaths. Remembering a childhood visit to Arlington National Cemetery, he arranged for the extra wreaths to be placed on veterans' graves. What started as a small gesture grew steadily over the years, eventually becoming a national non-profit organization in 2007. Today, Wreaths Across America coordinates ceremonies at thousands of cemeteries across the United States and abroad, all held on the same December weekend with one mission: Remember, Honor, Teach.

On Dec. 13, 2025, Chester L. Briggs American Legion Post 47 led a heartfelt Wreaths Across America ceremony at Evergreen Cemetery in Houlton. Veterans, families, and community members gathered to honor the men and women who served our nation, ensuring their names and sacrifices are never forgotten.

This year's ceremony at Evergreen Cemetery reflected that mission with honor and community spirit. Post 47 members led the observance, placing wreaths and offering words of remembrance for those who served. Volunteers of all ages participated, demonstrating the shared commitment to honoring veterans from every generation.

Chester L. Briggs Post 47 Leads Pearl Harbor Remembrance Ceremony at Gateway Bridge

On Dec. 7, 2025 Chester L. Briggs American Legion Post 47 led a solemn Pearl Harbor remembrance ceremony at the Gateway Bridge in Houlton. Community members, veterans, and local students gathered to honor the lives lost during the attack on Pearl Harbor, a defining moment in American history.

Pearl Harbor was attacked on Dec. 7, 1941, when Japanese forces launched a surprise strike against the U.S. naval base in Hawaii. The assault destroyed or damaged numerous ships and aircraft and resulted in the loss of more than 2,400 American lives. The following day, the United States formally entered World War II, marking a turning point that changed the course of American history.

This year's ceremony at the Gateway Bridge reflected the deep respect our community holds for those who served and sacrificed. The Post 47 Honor Guard led the observance, joined by the color guard, made up of criminal justice students who proudly participated in the tribute. The presence of eight Canadian veterans highlighted the strong bond shared between our two nations, underscoring the shared history and enduring partnership between our nations.

The event served as a reminder of the bravery shown on that fateful day in 1941 and the importance of continuing to honor the legacy of the Greatest Generation. Through gatherings like this, Post 47 remains committed to preserving history, fostering community involvement, and ensuring that the sacrifices of our veterans are never forgotten.

Chester L. Briggs Post 47 Hosts Annual Thanksgiving Dinner for Seniors

Each year, Chester L. Briggs American Legion Post 47 in Houlton hosts a Thanksgiving dinner for local senior citizens—an event open to veterans, their families, friends, and the public. This tradition has continued to grow, and we typically serve more than 300 meals. This year was no exception.

On Nov. 23, 2025, Post 47 volunteers served 340 Thanksgiving meals! The dining hall was open to all guests who wished to share a warm meal, enjoy fellowship, and give thanks together.

What made this year's dinner especially meaningful was the journey that brought us here. Last year, on the evening following our Thanksgiving event, Post 47 suffered a devastating fire that severely damaged our kitchen. Thankfully, no one was present at the time, but the loss was significant—both financially and for the community that relies on our post as a gathering place. The post is a cornerstone of local support.

Over the past year, our members and supporters have worked tirelessly—raising funds, seeking new opportunities, and pushing forward despite every challenge—to ensure we could continue serving our community.

Thanks to that effort, construction on our new kitchen is scheduled to begin this spring, marking an important step forward. While we are still fundraising to support the rebuild effort, our post will persevere.

A major part of our resilience comes from the strength of all Post 47 family—the Legionnaires, the Sons of the American Legion squadron, and the Auxiliary unit. These groups work together with a level of cooperation and camaraderie rarely seen in volunteer organizations. Their shared commitment to service is the backbone of everything we accomplish.

Our Post Commander and his leadership team embody that spirit. Their dedication, guidance, and steady hand have helped Post 47 continue its mission despite adversity, ensuring we remain a reliable source of support for our veterans and our community.

Hosting this year's Thanksgiving dinner was more than a tradition; it was a testament to resilience, teamwork, and the unwavering spirit of Post 47. This Thanksgiving meant a little more to all of us—our members, our volunteers, and the seniors who look forward to this gathering each year.

Chester L. Briggs Post 47 Honors Veterans Day with Community Ceremony in Houlton

Members of the Chester L. Briggs American Legion Post 47 in Houlton gathered with local residents, veterans, families, and community members on Veterans Day for a heartfelt ceremony held at the town's historic park. The event, rooted in tradition and deep respect, served as a reminder of the sacrifices made by generations of service members from the Houlton area and beyond.

The ceremony opened with the posting of colors by the Post 47 Honor Guard, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance and a moment of silence to honor those who served and those who never returned home. The crisp November air and the quiet stillness of the park created a fitting atmosphere for reflection.

Post 47 Commander Charles Clark offered welcoming remarks, emphasizing the importance of remembering not only the veterans of past conflicts but also the men and women currently serving around the world. He spoke of the enduring values of duty, honor, and community—principles that continue to guide the mission of Post 47.

Post 47 members of The American Legion, Sons of the American Legion, and Auxiliary participated by reading selections in honor of our veterans and their families. Community members also participated in the ceremony as guest speakers, including Department 1st Vice Commander Joe Michaud and Sue Tortello of the Houlton Town Council. They each offered words of remembrance, honoring the sacrifices made by generations of service members with words of pride and encouragement. The solemn sound of Taps, played by Post 47 bugler and Adjutant Jerry Riley, echoed across the park and brought the crowd to a reflective silence.

The ceremony concluded with expressions of gratitude to all who attended and to the volunteers who helped organize the event. For Post 47, Veterans Day remains not just a date on the calendar but a living commitment to honoring service, supporting veterans, and strengthening the bonds of the Houlton community.

As residents dispersed from the park, the sense of unity and appreciation lingered—an enduring reminder of the sacrifices made by those who have worn the nation's uniform and the responsibility we all share in preserving their legacy.

Additionally, later in the day Post 47 provided support during the Native American Veterans Day service at the Maliseet band's historic veterans cemetery, the only Native American veterans burial site of its kind east of the Mississippi River.

The ceremony had a strong turnout with representation from both countries, reflecting the community's commitment to honoring Indigenous veterans and their sacrifices.

We are truly thankful for the invitation to join this important day of remembrance. It was a privilege to stand alongside the Woodstock First Nations community in paying tribute to the courage and service of Indigenous veterans.

Frenchville Unit 145 Update: We are not a very big unit, but we are alive and active in our communities of Frenchville, St. Agatha, and Sinclair. Recently, we donated 14 beautiful blankets to the Caribou Veterans' Home. We also donated towards their Christmas, with many Christmas wrappings, bows, and bags. Top photos, the donated Christmas supplies and blankets. Celebrate the Nation's Semi-Quincentennial by Taking Part in The American Legion's USA 250 Challenge.

Visit: www.legion.org/get-involved/community-programs/usa250/challenge to learn more and register.

ABOUT THE CHALLENGE: The American Legion Family is honoring the nation's 250th birthday with a commitment to embracing physical activity, supporting mental health and serving its communities. The USA 250 Challenge encourages American Legion Family members, other veterans and all Americans to participate, and even raise additional money to support our disabled veterans and families in need through The American Legion Veterans & Children Foundation.

The year-long initiative offers three categories — fitness, mental wellness and community service — in order to engage more American Legion Family members and others to participate.

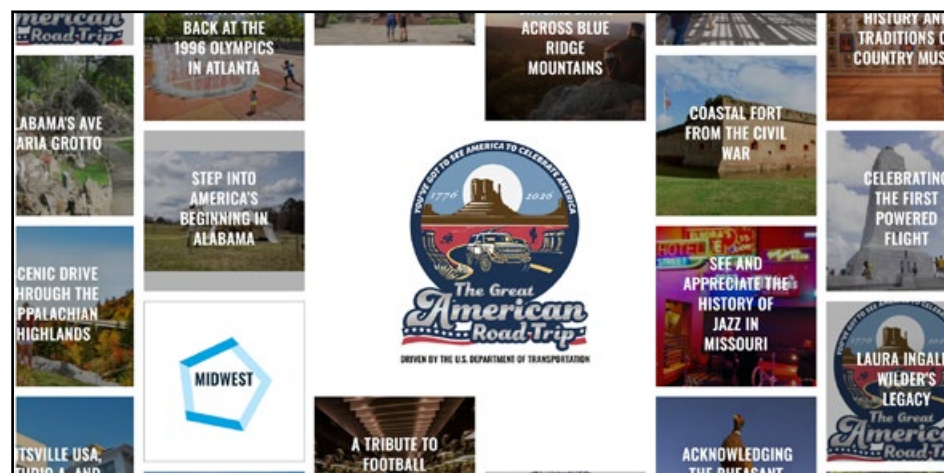

Participants may engage in one, two or all three activities as an individual or as part of a team like an American Legion post, American Legion Auxiliary unit, Sons of The American Legion squadron and/or an American Legion Riders chapter.

For a $30 registration fee, participants will receive their choice of a USA 250 Challenge tech shirt. The proceeds will go to the Veterans and Children Foundation (VCF).

a certified tax accountant, preparing taxes for more than 800 clients annually for 35 years, often making house calls to elderly clients. When not working, Robert could be found cutting wood, haying with family, volunteering for the Jefferson Fire Department, fishing, hunting, or attending fairs with his steers.

Today, Roberts only farm companion is Tiger, a 17-year-old black cat, rescued from the Windsor Fair. At 91, Robert remains active—recently joining Lions Club International as its oldest, new member and continuing his long-standing involvement with The American Legion at Waldoboro Post 149. In 2026, he will celebrate 50 years as a Legion member.
